

January 29, 2006

Burkhart -

Joni Mae Soukup and Jeremy David Burkhart were married on Oct. 29 at St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church in Wilson. The Rev. David Metz officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are James and Carolyn Soukup of Wilson and Gerald and Rose Ann Burkhart of Great Bend.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory gown by Anjolie. The strapless chiffon-over-satin dress had a corset back. The A-line gown featured embroidery accented with crystals and beading along the neckline and hemline and chapel-length train. She also wore a pearl and crystal headpiece, along with a chapel-length veil accented with crystals and rhinestones. The bride's bouquet consisted of red and orange roses with yellow calla lilies.

Rose Soukup of Lenexa served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Corie Soukup of Wilson, Jeannie Habbart of Manhattan, April Reed of Hays and Anjie Weidman of Wichita. The bridesmaids wore chocolate-brown strapless organza gowns with lace-up backs. They carried bouquets of red, orange and ivory roses.

Bryan Mermis of Great Bend served as the best man. The groomsmen were Joe Soukup of Wilson, Trenton Green of Overland Park, Brandon Green of Overland Park and Nathan Osborn of Lawrence.

Tristan Soukup of Wilson was the ring bearer.

Music was provided by Myrene Soukup of Wilson, organist, and Trenton and Bonny Green, vocalists of Overland Park.

The bride received her Bachelor of Science degree from Fort Hays State University and certificate in radiation therapy from Washburn University. She is a radiation therapist in Olathe.

The groom is a graduate of Fort Hays State University and is the wholesale manager for Lukas Liquor in Overland Park.

The couple makes their home in Overland Park.

January 22, 2006

Barrett -

Janice Lubeck of Great Bend and Larry Barrett of Wichita were married on Dec. 10 at the University Friends Meeting House in Wichita. Dr. David Kingrey conducted the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. Howard Youngblom of Lindsborg and the late Effie Youngblom. The groom is the son of the late C. Glenn Barrett and C. Audrey Frazier-Barrett of Wichita.

Escorted by her son, Jude Lubeck of Seattle, Wash., the bride wore an elegant mint, satin and crepe gown designed in a mock two-piece look with a princess silhouette, featuring a picture collar and wrapped-waist detail over a floor-length skirt with a sweep train.

Linda Dueser of Great Bend was matron of honor. She wore a deep hunter-green crepe gown designed with a sleeveless scoop neckline and delicately beaded embroidered bodice over a long A-line skirt.

Brent Thomas of Anna, Texas, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

Ushers were Lance Barrett of Wichita, son of the groom, Wayne Casimir of Wichita, son-in-law of the groom, Logan Casimir, grandson of the groom, and Jude Lubeck, son of the bride.

Wedding hostesses were Summer Barrett of Wichita, daughter-in-law of the groom, Leigh Casimir of Wichita, daughter of the groom, and Kirstin Casimir, granddaughter of the groom, was at the guest book.

The wedding music was performed by Jessica Snyder, flutist, LaVonna Loesch, pianist, Clint Begole, vocalist, and Rosemary Netrouner, organist. A cake and punch reception was held at the University Friends Meeting House followed by a dinner buffet reception at the Four Points Sheraton in Wichita.

The couple will continue working at Larned State Hospital in administration and will maintain households in Great Bend and Wichita.

Forbes -

Tammi S. Jenisch and Frankie J. Forbes were married on Aug. 27 at St. Rose of Lima Church in Great Bend. The Rev. Reginald Urban officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Gerald and Judy Jenisch of Great Bend and Jim and Carol Forbes of Parsons.

The bride and groom presented themselves for marriage with the blessing of both of their parents and families.

Sherri Jenisch, sister of the bride, of Merriam, served as maid of honor. The best men were Dan Forbes of Parsons and Christopher O'Connor of Gardner, both brothers of the groom. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses with berries and the maid of honor carried a bouquet of white roses with berries.

Readers and Lectors were Kelly Feist of Great Bend, Brad LaForge of Wichita and Heath Osborn of Lawrence.

Ushers were Matt Hanny of Parsons, Joe Keal of Prairie Village, Aaron Whetzel of Overland Park and Brant Williams of Battlefield, Mo.

The bride is a graduate of Great Bend High School. She received an associate's degree from Barton County Community College and a bachelor's degree in accounting from Kansas State University. She is an internal auditor for Dairy Farmers of America, Inc. in Kansas City, Mo.

The groom is a graduate of Parsons High School. He received his associate's degree from Coffeyville Community College, a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Kansas, Juris Doctorate and MBA from the University of Kansas. He is an attorney with Holbrook and Osborn, PA in Overland Park.

The couple make their home in Kansas City, Mo.

Matyszewski -

Laura Rankin and Sebastian Matyszewski, both of Colorado Springs, Colo., were married on Nov. 26 at First United Methodist Church, Castle Rock, Colo. The Rev. Rob White officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Randy and Mary Rankin of Castle Rock, and Slawek and Halina Matyszewscy of Tomaszow, Poland. Grandparents of the couple are Wayne and Jean Ward of Larned, Janet Rankin of Great Bend and Krystyna Stroinska of Poland. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a strapless, A-line gown in ivory with champagne tulle and lace overlay and details by Maggie Sottero with Swarovski crystals. She carried a bouquet of purple iris and burgundy calla lilies.

Jessica Potasz of Colorado Springs, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Erin Krause of Parker, Colo.; Allie Cross of Erie, Colo.; Jennifer Bruining of Denver, Colo.; Julie Casten of Castle Rock; and Kelly Hurtado of Colorado Springs. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of ivory calla lilies.

Piotrek Matyszewski of Tomaszow, Poland, served as the best man. The groomsmen were Michal Potasz of Colorado Springs and Colby Rankin of Castle Rock.

Peyton Glinche was the flower girl.

Special music was provided by Paul Dannels, soloist, Kyle Bradley, trumpeter, Donna Murray, organist and Sabrina Steeves, flutist.

Candle lighters were Kate Braden of Austin, Texas, Ashton Becker of Meriden and Sunny Ward of Syracuse, N.Y.

Ushers were Ty Ward of Evergreen, Colo., Jay Braden of Austin, Texas, and Ace Ward of Loveland, Colo.

The bride received a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology and sociology from University of Colorado and MA in counseling from the University of Colorado. She is employed by Horizon Middle School in Colorado Springs.

The groom received a Bachelor of Arts degree in logistics/ transportation engineering from Radom, Poland. He is employed by DHL in Colorado Springs.

The couple makes their home in Colorado Springs.

Satterlee -

Shayla Meier and Mike Satterlee were married on Oct. 29 at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church in Great Bend. The Rev. Reggie Urban officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Larry Teichmann and Rosalie Meier of Great Bend, and Don and Dee Satterlee of Salina. Grandparents of the couple are Marie Meier of Hoxie, Mickey Teichmann of Great Bend, Leona Rose of Salina, and Paul and Marcie Satterlee of Macksville.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather and mother, wore a gown by Maggie Sottero. It was an elegant white, matte-satin gown designed in a strapless princess silhouette, featuring a delicately beaded bodice atop a side-wrapped waist detail from which a panel of sheer illusion fell to the floor. Her semi-full princess skirt swept into its own chapel train, featuring an inset panel of sheer illusion scattered in blizzard beading. The bride wore a cathedral-length veil.

Kari Meier of Manhattan served as the maid of honor, and Aimee Riegel of Lawrence served as the matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Amy Kruckenberg of Great Bend, Jessica Unrein of Overland Park, and Michele Satterlee of Salina. The bridesmaids wore navy, satin strapless gowns with A-line skirts.

Josh Zeller of Mayetta and Jay Dean of Manhattan served as the best men. The groomsmen were Kevin Tilley of Hiawatha, Mike Walker of Manhattan, and J.J. Meier of Great Bend.

Jordan Hartwell, cousin of the bride, Colby, was the flower girl. Chase Hartwell, cousin of the bride, Colby, was the ring bearer.

Music was provided by organist Joyce Haberman and vocalists Jason Haberman and Lynee Habiger.

Ushers were Matthew Miller of Salina, Doug Parks of Great Bend, Tyrel Miller of St. John, all cousins of the groom, and Eric Gerrman and Jared Todd both of Manhattan.

The bride is a 2000 graduate of Great Bend High School and 2004 graduate of Kansas State University. She is a senior teller at Capitol Federal Savings in Manhattan.

The groom is a 1997 graduate of Peabody/Burns High School and is currently attending Kansas State University. He is employed by Wal-Mart in Manhattan.

The couple makes their home in Manhattan.

January 8, 2006

Klug -

Kiley Metro and Gavin Klug were married Nov. 19 at the Holy Family Parish in Odin. The Rev. Pascal Klein officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Larry and Deanna Metro of Concordia and John and Linda Klug of Odin. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a champagne satin strapless gown embellished with silver and gold beading. A mock two-piece carriage-back covered an organza chapel-length train, embroidered with beading along the edge. She also wore a fingertip veil with a beaded tiara. She carried a stem-nosed bouquet filled with red roses, orange Gerber daisies and yellow freesia.

Rachel Clark, sister of the bride, of Overland Park served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Adrienne Collins of Emporia, Kristy Straub of Great Bend, Sam South of Hutchinson and Alisha Lamatsch, sister of the groom, of Odin. The bridesmaids wore deep apple-red full-length spaghetti-strapped chiffon dresses with scooped necklines. They carried stem-nosed bouquets of red, orange and yellow Gerber daisies.

Austin Klug of Odin served as the best man. The groomsmen were Josh Kaiser of Manhattan, Beau Hekele of Odin, John Staudinger of Topeka and Philip Metro, brother of the bride, of Odin.

Adrienne Clark of Overland Park and Alyx Lamatsch of Odin were the flower girls. Mason Haxton of Ellinwood was the ring bearer.

Music was provided by Nancy Baxter of Great Bend, pianist; Jerry Ney of Great Bend, guitarist; and Shelly Ramsey and Jerad Gorney both of Great Bend, vocalists.

Ushers were Kevin Clark of Overland Park, Landon Krier of Kansas City, Jordan Metro of Emporia and Josh Gisick of Odin.

The bride is a graduate of Barton County Community College and Emporia State with a degree in elementary education. She teaches at Great Bend Middle School.

The groom has a certificate of masonry from North Central Kansas Technical College and is currently employed at Superior Essex in Hoisington.
The couple makes their home in Odin.

Great Bend Tribune

2012 Forest Ave.
Great Bend, KS. 67530

620-792-1211
800-950-8742
email@gbtribune.com

February 26, 2006

Ficken

Tammy Jo Petersen and Lance Reed Ficken were married Oct. 29 at Peace Lutheran Church in Albert. The Rev. Kris A. Bjerke-Ulliman officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Robert and Connie Petersen of Albert and John and Deanne Ficken of Bison. Grandparents of the couple are Paul and Teresa Dolochek of Hoisington, Wayne Ficken of LaCrosse and Lee and Ruby Shank of LaCrosse.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Leslie Sweasy of Newton, cousin of the groom, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Debbie McConnell of Hutchinson and Maggie Ziglar of Olpe, cousin of the bride.

Kirk Ficken of Hays, brother of the groom, served as the best man. The groomsmen were Chris Sohm of Satana and Eric Juno of Otis.

Special music was provided by Vernie Bowyer, organist, and Jason Haberman, vocalist.

Ushers were Tyler Kirk of Coldwater, LoRay George of Albert, Lance Ohnmacht of Nickerson and Shane DeWald of Olathe.

Tapelighers were Kendra Alderdice of Wichita and Janessa Swalley of Great Bend.

The bride is a 1993 graduate of Otis-Bison High School and is a registered pharmacy technician at Hays Medical Center in Hays.

The groom is a 1996 graduate of Otis-Bison High School. He is employed by Sunflower Pest Control in Otis and is also a cattleman at Ficken Angus in Bison.

The couple makes their home in Bison.

February 19, 2006

Golden -

Kara Marie McLeland and Richard Reed Golden were married Sept. 24 at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Olmitz. Rev. Ulton Murphy officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of David and Lois McLeland of Hoisington. The groom is the son of the John and Marcia Golden of Goodland.

Maid of honor was Kelli McLeland, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Kristi Schremmer, Kelly Grier, Lora Grosshans and Brandy Martin. Flower girl was Claire Bowker, niece of the groom.

Bestman was Jeff Bowker, brother-in-law of the groom. Groomsmen were Andy House, brother-in-law of the groom, Jim Elliott, Seth Stone and Brian Pfannenstiel. Ring bearer was Andrew House, nephew of the groom.

Ushers included Christopher McLeland, brother of the bride, Kyler West, Mark Hamilton and Brent Collins.

Taper lighters were Elizabeth House and Reed Bowker, niece and nephew of the groom.

The bride is a graduate of Kansas State University and Colby Community College. She is employed by Quantum Health Professionals as a physical therapist assistant.

The groom is a graduate of Northwest Kansas Technical College and is employed by Sprint as a NTAC engineer.

The couple resides in Olathe.

February 12, 2006

Zorn -

Sarah Stout Brand and Eric Jason Zorn were married on Oct. 22 at Haystack Gardens in Cannon Beach, Ore. The Rev. Joel Rova-Hegener of Silverdale, Wash., officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are John Brand of Minneapolis, Minn., and Dennis and Brenda Zorn of Westminster, Colo. Grandparents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zorn of Hoisington and Mr. and Mrs. Durward Smith of Pawnee Rock.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Jessica Brand, sister of the bride, of Fort Collins, Colo., served as maid of honor.

Zachary Zorn, brother of the groom, of Loveland, Colo., served as the best man.

Ushers were Joshua Brand, brother of the bride, Minneapolis and Alycia Zorn, sister of the groom, of Westminster.

The bride received her Bachelors of Environmental Design emphasis in planning at the University of Colorado, Boulder. She is working on a Masters of Urban Planning and Development at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

The groom received a Bachelors of Environmental Design emphasis on architecture at the University of Colorado, Boulder.

He is working as a marketing associate with SYSCO food services, Minneapolis, Minn.

The couple makes their home in St. Paul, Minn.

February 5, 2006

Zorn -

Sarah Stout Brand and Eric Jason Zorn were married on Oct. 22 at Haystack Gardens in Cannon Beach, Ore. The Rev. Joel

Rova-Hegener of Silverdale, Wash., officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are John Brand of Minneapolis, Minn., and Dennis and Brenda Zorn of Westminster, Colo. Grandparents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zorn of Hoisington and Mr. and Mrs. Durward Smith of Pawnee Rock.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Jessica Brand, sister of the bride, of Fort Collins, Colo., served as maid of honor.

Zachary Zorn, brother of the groom, of Loveland, Colo., served as the best man.

Ushers were Joshua Brand, brother of the bride, Minneapolis and Alycia Zorn, sister of the groom, of Westminster.

The bride received her Bachelors of Environmental Design emphasis in planning at the University of Colorado, Boulder. She is working on a Masters of Urban Planning and Development at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

The groom received a Bachelors of Environmental Design emphasis on architecture at the University of Colorado, Boulder.

He is working as a marketing associate with SYSCO food services, Minneapolis, Minn.

The couple makes their home in St. Paul, Minn.

March 19, 2006

Lee -

Gayl McGuire and Earl Lee were united in marriage on Nov. 19 at First Christian Church in Pratt. Rev. Rhonda Glen officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dean and Velma Anthony and the groom is the son of the late Robert (Bob) Lee and Joyce Lee.

The bride was given in marriage by Dean Anthony.

The maid of honor was Kathy Barker and the best man was David Brack.

Flower girls were Sarah and Ruth Anthony. The ringbearer was Laurence James Melson.

Ushers were Clayton Janousek and Tee Jay Janousek.

The groom is employed by Warren Doonan Truck and Equipment.

The couple will reside in Great Bend.

Deeds -

Nicole Michelle Fischer of St. John and Zacharia August Deeds of Hays were married on Dec. 10 at the United Methodist Church in Pratt. The Rev. Doug Enik of Pratt officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Gregg and Leann Fischer of Great Bend. Her grandparents are Norma and Herman Fischer Jr. of Seward and LeRoy and Viola Schraeder of Great Bend.

The groom is the son of Bill and Janice Deeds of Hays. His grandparents are Wayne and Irma Deeds of Colby and Rose Scheck of Hays.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a strapless, A-line, diamond-white taffeta gown accented with an asymmetrical overlay of silver lace encrusted with Swarovski crystals. The empire-waist line was accented with taffeta bands and a crystal brooch. A corset lace-up back and a beautiful detailed train finished the enchanting look. The bride accessorized with a Swarovski crystal tiara, earrings and necklace, while a crystal-edged veil finished the entire look. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Stacey Fischer of Great Bend. Bridesmaids were Jenny Grunder of St. John, Jessica Henson of Ulysses, Sara Gutierrez of Abilene, Texas, Carrie Kerns of Atlanta, Ga., Brittany Magiera of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Casey Jones of Philadelphia, Pa. The attendants wore deep-amethyst chiffon gowns with a scoop-cowl neckline and back, with a high-low flowing hemline. Each carried a bouquet of different hues of purple flowers.

Nathan Leeper of Protection was the best man. Groomsmen were Mike LeCount and Blake Chaffin both of Hays, Paxton Crumbaker and Chad Beiser both of Brewster, Junior Vasquez of Wylie, Texas and Seth Thibault of Pratt.

The flower girl was Janessa Vasquez of Wylie and Brandon Heine of Great Bend was the ring bearer.

Ushers were Ben Sigel and Brandon Riffey both of Pratt, Jeff Stump of Manhattan and Danny Gutierrez of Abilene.

Special music was provided by vocalist Dylan Evans of Lebo.

The bride is a graduate of St. John High School and Kansas State University with a bachelor of science degree in apparel and textiles. She is national sales manager, prom division, for Maggie Sottero Couture Bridal.

The groom is a graduate of Hays High School, Colby Community College. He received a bachelor of science degree in agronomy and master's degree in weed science from K-State. He is a lawn technician for Scott's Lawn Service.

The couple will live in Salt Lake City, Utah.

March 12, 2006

Hemphill -

Erin Renee Owen and Brett Adam Hemphill were married on Dec. 17 at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Hoisington. The Rev. Pascal Klein officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Carrol and Debbie Owen of Hoisington and Brad and Sue Hemphill of Great Bend.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of diamond white, Italian satin by Victoria's Bridal Collection. The gown featured a triple-banded strapless bodice with silver and pearl beaded embroidery. Covered buttons led to an open key-hole train with silver and pearl beaded embroidery and a box-pleated skirt. She also wore a bun ring, head piece with pearl and crystal flowers and vines and a fingertip-length veil with a blusher. She carried a nosegay of fresh red roses, hand-tied with cream-colored ribbon.

Mary Martin, aunt of bride, of Blue Springs, Mo., served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Erin Hemphill, sister-in-law of the groom, of Linwood; Meg Fasulo of Manhattan and Katie Shaeffer of Manhattan. The bridesmaids wore red satin, strapless, floor-length gowns with empire waists. The empire waist was accented with bugle beading and a bow. They carried smaller nosegays of fresh cream roses hand-tied with red ribbon.

Brandon Hemphill, brother of groom, of Linwood, served as the best man. The groomsmen were T.J. Dietz of Eudora, Aaron Andrews of Manhattan, Andrew Owen, brother of the bride, of Hoisington and Jared Owen, brother of the bride, of Hoisington. Music was provided by Joyce Haberman of Great Bend, organist, and Colleen Gerstenkorn, aunt of groom, of Wichita, was the vocalist.

Ushers were Austin LaViolette, cousin of the bride, of Hays and Matt Daniel, cousin of the groom, of Great Bend.

Taperlighter was Mariah Meade, cousin of the bride, of Crestview, Fla.

The bride is a 2003 graduate of Hoisington High School. She is a student at Kansas State University, majoring in biochemistry and chemistry.

The groom is a 2002 graduate of Great Bend High School and a 2004 graduate of Manhattan Area Technical College. He is the head draftsman for Manko Window Systems in Manhattan.

The couple makes their home in Manhattan.

Schmidt -

Trina Marie White and Chancy Lee Schmidt were married on Nov. 19 at Community Christian Church in Great Bend. The Rev. Jack Sweany, officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Craig and Cindy White and Ron Schmidt and Dorothy Schmidt.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with corset bodice and tulle skirt accented with beaded Alencon lace motifs train. She also wore a three-tier veil with scattered pearls and pencil edge. She carried a hand-clutched bouquet of 12 red roses with white misty. The base was wrapped with white satin ribbon and finished off with handmade white satin ribbon roses.

Brandy Ferguson, cousin of the bride, of Salina, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Christie Tijerina, sister of the groom and Lacy Schneweis, sister of the groom, both of Great Bend, and Kendi Hickel, cousin of the bride, of Claffin. They wore apple-colored dresses with x-necks and embroidery and beading, with a long chiffon A-line skirts. They carried a hand-clutched bouquet of six white roses and cinnabar-colored misty. The bouquets were finished with wrapped stems of cinnabar-colored satin ribbon.

Cody Schmidt, brother of the groom, of Great Bend, served as the best man. The groomsmen were Ronnie Schmidt, brother of the groom, Kyle White, brother of the bride and Ignarcio Carrasco, uncle of the groom, all of Great Bend. They wore black tuxes with red vests.

Raylin Schneweis, niece of the groom, of Great Bend, was the flower girl. Aidan Tijerina, nephew of the groom, of Great Bend, was the ring bearer. Haylee Ferguson, cousin of the bride, of Salina, was the miniature bride.

Special music was provided by Denise Sweany, pianist, and David Hickel, uncle of the bride, vocalist.

Ushers were Ryan Rowe, Blake Schneweis, brother-in-law of the groom, Scott Gruber and Brandon Chansler all of Great Bend.

Taper lighters were Auston Williams, nephew of the groom, and Marissa Leeper, both of Great Bend.

The bride is a 2004 graduate of Great Bend High School and is employed by Central Kansas Medical Center as a student respiratory therapist.

The groom is also a 2004 graduate of GBHS and is employed by USD 428 as a para-professional.

The couple makes their home in Great Bend.

Great Bend Tribune

2012 Forest Ave.
Great Bend, KS. 67530

620-792-1211
800-950-8742
email@gbtribune.com

April 23, 2006

Watkins

Sheila M. Scharzt and Kenny Watkins were united in marriage on March 14 in a double-ring ceremony on the beach at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

The bride is the daughter of Mary Keil and Danny LeRoy of Great Bend and Conan and Donna Scharzt of Hutchinson. Her grandparents are Melvin and Jane Keil of Great Bend and Abrey and Bonny Scharzt of Hutchinson.

The groom is the son of Lester and Karen Watkins of Hutchinson.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore a long, white, sleeveless, lace gown made of sheerganza. The gown featured high empire styling, a rounded neckline with chained pearls and sequins and had a banded gathering of sheerganza around the waist. The back waist was accented with rolled satin roses and trimmed with beads and sequins. The gown ended with a tiny chapel train. The illusion veil with pearl-chained beads was attached to a headpiece made of rolled satin roses and petals edged with pearls and sequins, matching the back waist of the gown. She carried a bouquet of one dozen long-stemmed peach roses.

The maid of honor was the mother of the bride, Mary Keil.

Danny LeRoy, step-father of the groom was the bestman.

The flower girl was Tatum Watkins, daughter of the groom, and the ring bearer was Lachlan Watkins, the couple's son; both are of Hutchinson.

The bride attended Great Bend High School and Hutchinson Community College. She is employed at the Hutchinson Clinic in Hutchinson.

The groom graduated from Hutchinson High School and attended Hutchinson Community College. He is employed by Advance Pest Control of Hutchinson.

The couple reside in Hutchinson.

Campbell -

Lydia Marie Hanes and Adam Wayne Campbell were united in marriage on Oct. 1, 2005, at Unity Church of Overland Park in Overland Park. The Rev. Nancy Jerome officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are LouAnna Hanes of Otis, Donnie and Betty Moore of Trenton, Mo., and David and Marti Campbell of Trenton.

The bride wore a diamond-white strapless chiffon gown. The flowing A-line gown, embellished with Swarovski crystals, featured a sweep train and a lace-up corset back. A single tier finger-tip length shimmering tulle veil and crystal tiara completed the bride's ensemble. She carried a cascading tear-drop-shaped bouquet of stargazer lilies, dark fuchsia roses, white calla lilies, and white stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Rayna Weigel and the bridesmaid was Heather Whitney both from Hays. They wore floor-length platinum gowns and carried bouquets of stargazer lilies, dark fuchsia roses, white poms and pink and white alstroemeria.

The best man was Mark Campbell of Overland Park, brother of the groom. Groomsman was Chris Kirkland of Warrensburg, Mo.

Ushers were Brian Ouellette of Overland Park and Rich Wortmann of Ashland, Neb. Cristina Hanes of Huntington Beach, Calif., Cathy Hanes of Savannah, Ga., and Amanda Hanes of Otis, sisters of the bride, were guest book and gift attendants.

The bride is graduate of Otis-Bison High School and a graduate of Fort Hays State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in information networking and telecommunications. She is currently a student at Johnson County Community College, studying web development and design.

The groom is a graduate of Trenton High School. He is also a graduate of DeVry Institute of Technology with a Bachelor of Science degree in telecommunication management and Keller Graduate School of management with a Master of Business Administration. He is employed as a software solutions developer with KCG Inc. of Lenexa.

The couple resides in Kansas City, Mo.

April 2, 2006

White - Mazouch

Teresa White and Stephen Mazouch were united in marriage on Nov. 5 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Great Bend. Rev. Charles Mazouch of Ellinwood, uncle of the groom, and Rev. Ted Stoecklein of Great Bend officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Tom and Kelly White and the groom is the son of Gene and Mary Ann Mazouch, all of Great Bend.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a candlelight white, two-piece strapless gown by Lana Bisset with lace and pearl beaded embroidered top and scalloped edges. The gown featured an A-line satin skirt with a chapel-length chiffon train with lace and beaded detail, handmade by her grandmother. She also wore a chapel-length chiffon veil with lace beaded detail handmade by the bride's grandmother Ann Boese. She carried a bouquet of candlelight white roses hand-tied in ivory-colored ribbon.

The maids of honor were the bride's sister, Tammi White and Tarra White of Great Bend. Bridesmaids were Patty Peschal of Manhattan, Crystal Cook of Kansas City, Staci Coulson of Hays and Carly Blosser of Council Grove. The attendants wore two-piece strapless, floor-length gowns, which featured a black beaded top and a gold skirt. They carried wine and plum roses hand-tied with wine-colored ribbon.

Jeff Holste of Manhattan was the bestman. Groomsmen were brothers of the groom, Chris Mazouch, Greg Mazouch and Michael Mazouch, all of Great Bend, and Matthew Mazouch of Hays. The flower girl was Brooklyn Burkhart of Conway Springs and Peyton Mauler of Great Bend was the ring bearer. Ushers were Mike Peschal of Manhattan and, cousins of the groom, David Debes of Kansas City, Mo., Nick Mazouch of Great Bend, and Daniel Debes of Manhattan. Joyce Haberman of Great Bend was the organist. Vocalists were Vern Fryberger of Ellinwood and Lori Underwood of Great Bend.

The bride is a 1999 graduate of Great Bend High School and a 2001 graduate of Barton County Community College. She received her bachelor's degree from Columbus State University in 2004. She is employed as an accounts payable specialist at Escreen, Inc. in Overland Park.

The groom is a 2000 graduate of Great Bend High School and a 2002 graduate of Barton County Community College. He received a bachelor's degree in civil engineering from Kansas State University in 2005. He is employed by Burns and McConnell in Kansas City, Mo. The couple reside in Overland Park.

Great Bend Tribune

2012 Forest Ave.
Great Bend, KS. 67530

620-792-1211
800-950-8742
email@gbtribune.com

Brainerd — Maness

Lori Ann Brainerd and Steven Austin Maness were united in marriage on May 28 at the home of Glen and Beverly Brainerd in Great Bend. The Rev. Julie Shields officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Glen and Beverly Brainerd of Great Bend. The groom is the son of the late Billie Joe Maness. She graduated from Great Bend High School and is employed by Amarillo Catholic Children's Development Center. He graduated from Long Beach High School in Long Beach, Calif. and is employed by Amarillo Window Cleaning. Sara Oberle of Kansas City, was the matron of honor and Donald Brainerd of Great Bend, brother of the bride, was best man. The couple reside in Amarillo, Texas.

Great Bend Tribune

2012 Forest Ave.
Great Bend, KS. 67530

620-792-1211
800-950-8742
email@gbtribune.com

June 25, 2006 Steinert The children and grandchildren of Don Steinert and Jane Schremmer came together for a small family wedding ceremony on April 22. The couple were united in marriage at Immaculate Conception Church in Claflin with the Rev. Charles Mazouch officiating. Matron of honor was Kristi Greene, daughter of the bride. Best man was Brian Steinert, son of the groom. The bride is the school nurse for USD No. 354 in Claflin. The groom is employed by Cashco, Inc. in Ellsworth. The couple are making their home in Claflin. Warner Megan Porter and Jeremy Warner were united in marriage at the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Shawnee. Gary Tes ke and Bob Hemphill officiated the ceremony. Parents of the couple are Curtis and Sandra Porter of Shawnee Mission and Steve and Cindy Warner of Great Bend. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white wedding dress and she carried a bouquet of red roses and stargazer lilies. The matron of honor was Emily Lamont, the maid of honor was Johanna Hemphill, bridesmaids were Amanda Porter, Diane Guthrie, Gretchen Nicholl, Jill Hertzelle, and Sarah Boyle. They wore black dresses of their own choosing and carried red roses. The best man was Kevin Warner. Groomsmen were Steve Warner, Anthony Nicholl, Adam Moos, Matt Fouts, Joel Porter and Todd Porter. The wore wine-colored shirts with black ties. Ushers were Seth Wing and Will Hurst. The bride is a graduate of Friends University in Wichita with a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications. She is a Staff Sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserves and a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF II). She is employed by Commercial Real Estate Appraiser of Prairie Village. The groom is a graduate of Fort Hays State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in computer information systems and Park University with a Master of Business Administration degree. He is employed by DST Systems, Inc. in Kansas City, Mo., as a computer programmer. The couple reside in Olathe. McMullen Stacy Flaherty and Josh McMullen were united in marriage on March 17 in Fort Collins, Colo. Parents of the couple are Peggy Flaherty of Fort Collins and Jim and Lisa McMullen of Ellinwood. He is the grandson of Lloyd and Shirley DeWerff of Ellinwood and the late Jerome Wirtz and Gail and John McMullen of Great Bend. The bride graduated from Centennial High School of Fort Collins. She attended Colorado State University and graduated from Boulder College of Massage Therapy. She is a sports and orthopedic massage therapist. The groom graduated from Ellinwood High School, Barton County Community College and the University of Wyoming. He is employed by Fort Collins newspaper The Coloradoan as a major accounts executive. The couple reside in Fort Collins. June 11, 2006 Brainerd - Maness Lori Ann Brainerd and Steven Austin Maness were united in marriage on May 28 at the home of Glen and Beverly Brainerd in Great Bend. The Rev. Julie Shields officiated the double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Glen and Beverly Brainerd of Great Bend. The groom is the son of the late Billie Joe Maness. She graduated from Great Bend High School and is employed by Amarillo Catholic Children's Development Center. He graduated from Long Beach High School in Long Beach, Calif. and is employed by Amarillo Window Cleaning Sara Oberle of Kansas City, was the matron of honor and Donald Brainerd of Great Bend, brother of the bride, was best man. The couple reside in Amarillo, Texas.

August 27, 2006

French -

Allison Corrin Taylor and Christopher Lynn Luthi French were united in marriage on June 16 at The Lodge at Ironwoods in Leawood, Kan., in a double ring ceremony presided by Rev. William Johnson of Great Bend. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Parents of the couple are Kent and Leanne Taylor of Lenexa and Gary and Sheryl French of Great Bend. Grandparents of the bride are Bob and Louisa Taylor of Surprise, Ariz., George and Carolyn Berigan of Kansas City, Mo., and Dean and Ursula Gordon of Ethel, Mo. Grandparents of the groom are the late Eldon and Margaret French and the late Don and Helen Luthi. Maid of Honor was Annie Taylor of Lenexa. Bridesmaids were Andrea Taylor, Amanda Gordon, both of Lenexa, Angela Burd of Olathe and Becca Nichols of Overland Park.

Bestman was Dan Hedlund of Provo, Utah. Groomsmen were Zach Baker, Kyle Blake both of Overland Park, Jonah Nelson of Kansas City, Kan., and Gabe Abbott of San Diego, Calif.

Ushers were Don Luthi of Salina, Kyle French of Overland Park and Corey French of Great Bend.

The bride is a graduate of Kansas State University with a bachelor of science degree in elementary education. She is a first-grade teacher with Blue Valley School District in Leawood.

The groom is a graduate of Kansas State University with a bachelor of science in speech communication and minor in political science. He is employed at State Street International in Kansas City, Mo.

The couple reside in Overland Park.

Wilkens -

Karla Morgenstern and Jacob Wilkens were united in marriage on May 6 at All Faith's Chapel in Manhattan. The Rev. Keith Weber officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Robert and Jan Morgenstern of Hoisington, Jerry and Christine Wilkens of Omaha, Neb., and Dave Davis and the late Jerie Davis of Great Bend.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white matte satin V-neck halter gown embellished with beaded crystals on the empire bodice and a cascading caplet train. She wore a crystal tiara with a finger-tip veil adorned with scattered crystals and carried a European satin wrapped bouquet of hot pink roses.

The maid of honor was Sara Goetz of Lawrence, friend of the bride. Attendants were Crista Robinson of Lees Summit, Mo, sister of the bride, Denise Wilkens of Manhattan, sister in law of the groom, Amber Fouts of Dallas Texas, Ashley VanScyoc of Manhattan and Dalton Popp of Hoisington all friends of the bride. They wore strapless posie-a-line satin dresses with gathered empire bodice. They carried hand tied clutch bouquets of cherry brandy roses. The bride's personal attendant was Ann Morgenstern of Oxford, Ms., cousin of the bride.

The best man was Josh Wilkens of Manhattan, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Trent Stefek, Troy Roble, Chris Braley all of Manhattan and friends of the groom, Jon Fouts of Dallas, friend of the groom and Matt Morgenstern of Hoisington, brother of the groom.

Ushers were Garrett DeHaven, Brandon Stefek, Jared EATINGER all of Manhattan and Nick Torres of Amarillo, Texas, all friends of the groom.

Organist was Frank Schmeidler of Manhattan and vocalist was Denise Wilkens.

The bride is a 2001 graduate of Hoisington High School and a 2004 graduate of KSU with a bachelor degree in agricultural economics. She is employed by Steel and Pipe Co., Inc. of Manhattan as an account manager.

The groom is a 1998 graduate of Hoisington High School and a graduate of BCCC. He is superintendent for Braley Construction of Manhattan.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Cancun. They reside in Manhattan.

Foote -

Emilee Belknap and Derek Foote were united in marriage on July 8 in a double ring ceremony at Crestview Bible Church in Hutchinson.

Parents of the couple are Paul and Nancy Belknap of Hutchinson and Reuel and Janell Foote of Hudson.

Maids of honor were Sheree Belknap and Kylie Belknap of Hutchinson, sisters of the bride. Bridesmaids were Jenny Girst of San Francisco, Calif. and Angela Foote of Hudson, sister-in-law of the groom.

Best man was Josh Foote of Hudson, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Farmhouse Fraternity brothers Jeff Barney of Fresno, Calif., Tyler Hands of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Lucas Sawyer of Leavenworth.

Ushers were Jonathan Belknap, brother of the bride of Hutchinson, Tyler Alpers, cousin of the groom of Hudson, Jesse Sullivan, cousin of the bride of Nickerson and Nolan Crosson, Farmhouse brother from Omaha, Neb.

Taperlighters were Tabra Ward of Omaha, and Taci Alpers of Hudson, cousins of the groom. Ringbearer was Tate Weltz in, Lafayette, Colo. and flower girl was Linnea Epp, cousin of the bride from Aurora, Colo.

The bride is a graduate of Central Christian High School in Hutchinson and is currently working on her dietetics degree at Kansas State University.

The groom is a graduate of St. John High School and Kansas State University. He is currently employed by Cargill Meat Solutions in Wichita as a business analyst.

After a honeymoon to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, the couple reside in Valley Center.

Vondracek -

Joseph Louis and Shane Diann Vondracek were united in marriage on April 29.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Karst of Dorrance and the granddaughter of the late Clarence and Arlene Karst, and the late Ernest and Bernadine Pasek. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Vondracek of Dorrance, and Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Orr of Chanute and the grandson of the late Frank and Marie Vondracek, Robert Manka of Pawnee Rock, Barbara Manka of Larned, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stejskal of Timken and the great grandson of Fritz and Weichen of LaCrosse.

Matron of honor was Elizabeth Wasson. Bridal attendants were Nichole Jeffrey, Dana Hageman, Sara Weinhold and Cynthia Orr.

Best man was Chad Wasson. Groom's attendants were Chris Vondracek, Jimmy Kopriva, Jamie Karst and Kevin Thielen.

Jannah Jeffrey and Addelynn Wasson were flowergirls and Kaiden Jeffrey was the ring bearer.

The bride is a graduate of Wilson Jr. Sr. High School and Wichita State University. She is employed with the Wichita Public School system as a first-grade teacher.

The groom is a graduate of Wilson Jr. Sr. High School, Kansas State University and Wichita State University. He is employed at Raytheon Aircraft as a structural engineer.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Maui, Hawaii. They reside in Wichita.

August 20, 2006

Scheffe -

Marcy Dunham and Jamie Scheffe were united in marriage on May 20 in a double-ring ceremony at Sandals Royal Caribbean in Montegobay, Jamaica.

Parents of the couple are Steve and Marilyn Dunham of Great Bend, Clyde Scheffe Jr., of Denver, Colo., and Lorna Nutt of Longview, Texas.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a diamond-white gown by Maggie Sottero. It featured a one-piece strapless chiffon A-line gown with a corset back. The bodice and corset back were ornamented with rushed chiffon diagonally placed, revealing encrusted crystals. The double-chiffon skirt softly draped at the side hip, creating voluminous folds at the hem.

She wore a tiara, ornamented with encrusted crystals and a fingertip veil trimmed in crystals. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink anthuriums, white orchids and pink roses.

The maid of honor was Sarah Minge of Lincoln, Neb. She wore a pink-petunia tea-length A-line gown with thin straps and a sash detail at the drop waist.

The best man was Shannon Scheffe of Turpin, Okla., brother of the groom.

The bride is a 1999 graduate of Great Bend High School. She graduated from Wichita State University in 2004 with a Bachelor of Science degree in dental hygiene. She is employed as a dental hygienist in Wichita.

The groom is a 1999 graduate of Turpin High School. He graduated from Wichita State University in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science in business administration. He is employed as an assistant manager at Wal-Mart in Wichita.

The couple reside in Wichita.

Cochran -

Jennifer Ann Wapelhorst and Kevin Patrick Cochran were united in marriage on June 24 at the St. Peter the Apostle Catholic Church in Wichita. The Rev. Sherman A. Orr officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Paul and Charlotte Wapelhorst of Great Bend and the granddaughter of Marion Harders of Great Bend and the late Dolores Harders and Raymond and Cecilia Wapelhorst. The groom is the son of Brian Cochran of Erie, Pa., and Jane Cochran of Edinboro, Pa., and the grandson of Rose Stoila of Pennsylvania and the late George Stoila and Harry and Betty Cochran.

Matron of honor was Karen (Kuhn) Rujan, of Ellinwood. Bridesmaids were Angie Young of Littleton, Colo., Anliet Milke of Salina and Porscha Atkinson of Wichita.

The best man was David Ulrich, of Wichita. Groomsmen were Jason Gatewood of Atlanta, Ga., Ken Peterson of Pekin, Ill., and Scott Murr of Tulsa, Okla.

Candle lighters were Jennie Taylor and Terrell Rohr of Wichita. Pianist was Beth Merz of Lenexa, cousin of the bride.

The bride is graduate of Fort Hayes State University. She is employed by Busby, Smith and Ford in Wichita as an accountant.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Missouri. He is employed with Kent Audio Visual of Wichita.

The couple reside in Wichita.

White -

Jennifer S. Mathis and Blaine D. White were united in marriage on March 11 at Branson United Methodist Church in Branson, Mo. The Rev. Derik Hobbs of Crane, Mo., officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Linda and Paul Mathis of Harrison, Ark. She is the granddaughter of J.B. and Helen Foster and Ray and Vonnie Mathis, all of Harrison. The groom is the son of Joyce White of Hoisington and Jim White of Greenfield, Mo. He is the grandson of Joe Prosser of Hoisington and the late Emma Prosser and Lois Claxton of Greenfield.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white satin V-neck halter gown. The bodice was adorned with beaded embroidery. There was a side drape at the waist and the dress featured a lace-up back and beaded rhinestone tiara.

The matron of honor was Kim Franklin of Berryville, Ark. Becky Mathis, sister-in-law of the bride, was the bridesmaid and Vail Mathis, niece of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid, both are of Lead Hill, Ark.

Best man was Andy Greenway of Lathrop, Mo. Brian White of Hoisington, brother of the groom, was the groomsman and Joey Arellano of Garden City, nephew of the groom, was the junior groomsman.

Ushers were Jason Martin of Hoisington, Jay Mathis of Lead Hill, brother of the bride, Josh Arellano of Garden City and Nathan White of Holyrood, both nephews of the groom.

MacKenzie Hobbs of Crane, Mo., was the flower girl. Jared Arellano of Garden City, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer. Special music was provided by Liz, Emily and Josh Arellano of Garden City, nieces and nephew of the groom.

Nicole White of Holyrood, niece of the groom, read from the Bible.

The bride is the special education coordinator with the Blue Eye School District in Blue Eye, Mo. The groom is employed with TELEC Inc., of Springfield, Mo. The couple will reside in Branson.

August 13, 2006

French -

Cecily Lee Schartz and Kyle Christopher French were united in marriage on March 25 at the First Baptist Church in Ellinwood. Rev. Shawn Winters officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Greg Thier and the late Shawn Schartz. Grandparents of the bride are Bessie DeWerff and the late Kenneth DeWerff, Gilbert and Lorene Schartz and Richard and Carol Thier. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry French. Grandparents of the groom are Vernon and Geneva Stienert and the late Eldon and Margaret French.

The bride, given in marriage by her father Greg Thier, wore a diamond-white, one-piece, strapless, A-line gown with corset back. Layers of shimmering organza asymmetrically cascaded toward the hem in three tiers. Delicate floral embroidery edged the tiers of organza, framing the gown with embellishments of Swarovski crystals, pearls, glass beads, bugle beads, seed beads and sequins. The bride's headpiece was a band of miniature Swarovski crystals and pearls and her veil was a very simple translucent snow-white dotted with miniature crystals. She carried a solid bouquet of deep wine roses.

The maid of honor was Yvonne Springer of Belton, Mo. Bridesmaids were Cora Coleman of Lawrence, Bethany Phillips of Ellinwood, Heidi Krause of Manhattan, and Lindsay Wood of Des Moines, Iowa. The bridesmaids wore floor-length wine-colored gowns with beaded embellishments on the bodice. They carried a half dozen off-white Eskimo roses.

The best man was Corey French. Groomsmen were Colby Taylor of Edmond, Okla., Brett Trafas of Kansas City, Mo., Micah Schmidt of Wichita, and Jeff Moore of Manhattan.

Riley Moulder of Lee's Summit, Mo., was the ring bearer and Ellie Willinger of Great Bend was the flower girl. Ushers were Kip Kraisinger of Topeka, Eddie Wright from Kansas City, Sam Thier and Bill Thier of Ellinwood. Guitarist and vocalist were Jason and Leah Graves of Manhattan.

The bride is graduate of Kansas State University with a degree in business administration. She is employed at Peoples Bank in Overland Park as a cash management operations specialist.

The groom is a graduate of Kansas State University with a degree in secondary education. He is employed for Ryans Lawn and Tree in Overland Park as a turf account manager.

The couple reside in Overland Park.

August 6, 2006

Emerson -

Hillary Dawn Neeland and Aaron Daniel Emerson were united in marriage on June 23 at Liberty Hall in Lawrence. Judge Robert Fairchild presided over the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Dennis and Rosalind Neeland of Great Bend, Misty Emerson of Lawrence and Danny Emerson of Chanute. Grandparents of the bride are Marge Harrington of Great Bend, John and Emma Neeland of Colorado Springs, Colo., and the late Elaine Sayler. Grandparents of the groom are Gene and Clarice Reinhardt and Dan and Ann Emerson, all of Chanute.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory, matte-satin gown designed by Maggie Sottero in princess silhouette featuring a strapless neck line with a delicately embroidered and beaded motif diagonally across the bodice and into the skirt. The A-line skirt swept from a wrapped-waist detail into its own chapel train and the back was corseted. She wore a headpiece of a single red-jeweled chopstick and a bridal tulle veil tipped with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white Asiatic lilies wrapped in gold satin ribbons.

The maid of honor was Sarah Hill of Hutchinson, cousin of the bride. She wore a Chinese cheongsam short-sleeved blouse with frog buttons and a mandarin collar in red and gold silk with a black knee-length skirt. She carried a smaller version of the bride's bouquet, wrapped in red satin ribbons.

The best man was Waylon Banks of Lawrence.

The flower girls were Kelsey Neeland of Shekou, China, and Sarah Smith of Aurora, Colo. They wore long Chinese cheongsam short-sleeve dresses with side slits, mandarin collars and frog buttons, in red and gold silk. They carried inverted hand-painted parasols filled with rose petals. All the attendants' dresses were handmade in China.

Ushers were Graham Neeland of Emporia, brother of the bride, and Chris Swanson of Overland Park. Readers were Mike Neeland of Shekou, China, uncle of the bride and Kenneth Reinhardt of Lenexa, uncle of the groom.

The bride graduated from Great Bend High School in 1998 and the University of Kansas in 2002. She is employed by Lawrence Family Vision Clinic as a certified para-optometric.

The groom graduated from Lawrence High School in 2000. He is employed by Nebraska Furniture Mart, serves in the U. S. Army Reserve and is working toward a degree in emergency medical science.

Great Bend Tribune

2012 Forest Ave.
Great Bend, KS. 67530

620-792-1211
800-950-8742
email@gbtribune.com

September 24, 2006 Scheuerman — Kelsey Marie Garrett and Todd Alien Scheuerman were united in marriage on July 29 at the First United Methodist Church in Great Bend. The Rev. Gary Brooks and the Rev. William Johnson officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Rick and Karen Garrett and Clifford and Lynne Scheuerman, all of Great Bend. Grandparents of the bride are Mark and Marjorie Garrett of Great Bend and the late Marvin and Evelyn Kroeker. Grandparents of the groom are Bud and Violet Black of Great Bend, Hazel Scheuerman of Ellinwood and the late Glen Scheuerman. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a white strapless gown with a split-back and organza inset with metallic embroidered lace on both the bodice and skirt. She wore a silver-casted metallic scroll tiara with pearls and rhinestones, and a white two-tier corded edgeveil with scattered rhinestones. She carried a wildflower bouquet, which contained raspberry Gerber daisies, white stephanotis, yellow freesia, white daisies, accented with tree fern greenery in a satinwrapped handle. Maid of honor was Jenny Sorahan of Grand Island, Neb. Bridesmaids were Lisa Bahr of Great Bend, Amanda Garrett, sister-in-law of the bride, of Lincoln, Neb., and Annie Parker of Miami, Okla. They wore periwinkle satin, strapless ballgowns and carried wildflower bouquets similar to the bride's, containing raspberry Gerber daisies, yellow freesia, golden aster, and white daisies in a satinwrapped handle. The bride's personal attendant was Nickie Ochs of Great Bend. Best man was Brandon Purdy of Hays. Groomsmen were Chris Scheuerman of Wichita, brother of the groom, Chris Curtright of Salina, brother-in-law of the groom, and James Carter II of Kansas City. Candle lighters were Alex and Ashley Medina of Sand Springs, Okla., cousins of the groom. Ring bearer was Andrew Curtright of Salina, nephew of the groom. Ushers were Brandon Garrett of Lincoln, Neb., and Logan Garrett of Great Bend, brothers of the bride, Ryan Desemo of Lawrence, and Alan McFann of Lee's Summit, Mo. Music was provided by Jenny Allford, pianist, Marc Webster, trumpeter, and Lori Underwood, vocalist, all of Great Bend. The bride is a 2001 graduate of Great Bend High School and a 2005 graduate of Kansas State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education. She is employed by USD 428 in Great Bend as a fifth-grade teacher at Riley Elementary. The groom is a 2001 graduate of Great Bend High School and is currently pursuing degrees in philosophy and social work at Fort Hays State University. He is employed by Dillons in Great Bend. The couple reside in Great Bend.

Wagner — Jatim Diane Emerson and Cory James Wagner were united in marriage March 25 at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Olmitz. The Rev. Ultan Murphy presided over the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Randall and Rhonda Piland of Hoisington and Myron and Linda Wagner of Otis. Grandparents of the bride are Max and Betty Hicks and Delores Crawford, all of Hoisington, and the late Clarence Piland. Grandparents of the groom are Ernest and Helen Wagner of Great Bend and Clarence and Doris Tuzicka of Otis. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore an ivory, matte-satin gown. The V-neck halter gown was adorned with an ivory and silver beaded motif on the bodice and chapel train. She wore her mother's simple tulle veil accented with pearls and carried a solid bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. The matron of honor was Christine Foster of Shawnee. Bridesmaid was Katie Haselhorst of Williston, N.D. The best man was Jason Wagner of Alpine, Texas, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Patrick Burnett of Wichita. The flower girl was Danica Bartonek of Olmitz and ring bearer was Ian Foster of Shawnee. Ushers were Mike Riese of Hoisington, Pat Riese of Olmitz and Jason Haselhorst of Williston, N.D. Taper lighters were Matthew and Darin Hertel, cousins of the groom. Vocalist was Katie Crump of Great Bend. The bride is a 1994 graduate of Hoisington High School. She attended Fort Hays State University and Barton County Community College. She is employed by Central Kansas Medical Center as a nurse. The groom is a 2000 graduate of Otis-Bison High School. He attended Sterling College and Hutchinson Community College. He is employed by Great Bend Feeding as an animal health technician.

Perry — Kelsey Briggs Smith and Jason Don Perry were united in marriage on July 7 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Great Bend. The Rev. James Strasse officiated the doubling ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Dr. Perry and Krista Smith of Great Bend. The groom is the son of Karen Perry-Hayes and the late E. Dale Perry. The bride's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith of Inman, Patricia Schmidt of Great Bend and the late Eugene Schmidt. The groom's grandparents at Stephanie Cain and the late B. Don Cain. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an elegant oyster matte-satin gown designed by Maggie Sottero in a princess silhouette, featuring a strapless neck line with a delicately beaded motif across the bodice. The A-line skirt swept from a modified wrapped waist detail into its own beaded chapel train. A crystal and rhinestone tiara held her fingertip-length bridal illusion veil. She carried a hand-tied bouquet of red, pink, orange and green calla lilies and roses. Maid of honor was Stacie Kruse of Bel Aire. Bridesmaids were Tara (Malone) Pool of Kansas City, Mo., Jenny Urban of Bel Aire and Jenny Brown of Hazzard, Neb. The bridal attendants chose black mattesatin tea-length gowns designed in a strapless empire silhouette accented with ivory satin piping at the top and midriff. They each carried a single calla lily and rose in the bridal colors of pink, red and orange. The best man was Michael Perry, brother of the groom, of Great Bend. Groomsmen were Adam Sciacca, Jeff Lutt and Aaron Spanier, all of Great Bend. Flower girls were Logan Lord, Great Bend, and Alt Burkhardt, Norman, Okla. They wore tea-length gowns of light green accented with pink roses. Ring bearers were Logan and Chance Perry, nephews of the groom, of Great Bend. The taper lighters were Rachel and Nellie Bettis, nieces of the groom, of Great Bend. They wore similar dresses to the bridesmaids', in tea rose. Ushers were Mason Smith, brother of the bride, of Lawrence, Joe Burger of Des Moines, Iowa, Steve Cain, and Chris Cain, cousins of the groom, both of Great Bend. Jenny Allford, of Great Bend, provided piano accompaniment and Ali Guthmiller, of Plano, Texas, was vocal soloist. Personal attendants to the bride were Abby (Guthmiller) Thompson, of Parsons, and Teresa Malone, of Great Bend. The bride is a graduate of Great Bend High School, Barton County Community College and Fort Hays State University. She is an elementary teacher for USD 428 and Great Bend High School coach for junior varsity volleyball, basketball and softball. The groom is a graduate of Great Bend High School. He attended Barton County Community College and is a graduate of Kansas State University. He is an elementary teacher for USD 428 and Great Bend Middle School football coach, and assistant Great Bend High School softball coach. The couple reside in Great Bend.

Ingalls — Kristi Reif and Bradley Ingalls were married April 29 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Great Bend, with the Rev. Ted Stoeclein officiating the double-ring ceremony. The bride was escorted by her father. Parents of the bride are Gary and Karen Reif of Great Bend. Parents of the groom are Don and Edna Ingalls of Strong City. Matron of honor was Tammy Lichter, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Megan McMullen, Jamie Thurman, Rachel Nelson and Alison Winkelman. Best man was Kip Wilson. Groomsmen were Art Baker, Seth Potts, Andrew Adcock and Ty Wilson. Flower girls were Lauren Maresh and Ashlyn Maresh, nieces of the groom. Ushers were Ryan Maresh, Matt Murrell and Ryan Lichter. Candle lighters were Evan Talkington and Hannah Talkington. Organist was Joyce Haberman and vocalists were Chris and Mindy Allen. A reception, dinner and dance followed the ceremony at St. Patrick's Parish Center. The bride is a graduate of Great Bend High School and Fort Hays State University. She is a donor recruitment representative for the American Red Cross. The groom is a graduate of Chase County High School and Emporia State University. He is a police officer for the Riley County Law Enforcement Agency. The couple reside in Wamego.

September 17, 2006

Sanders —

Misty L. Zamora and Ken G. Sanders were united in marriage on Aug. 5 at their home in Dodge City, with the Rev. Randall Jahnke of Holy Cross Lutheran Church presiding.

Parents of the couple are Allen and Janet Hollingshead of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Robert and Diana Sanders of Great Bend.

Maid of honor was Jordin Zamora, daughter of the bride. Bridesmaid was Kim Heiser, sister of the bride.

Best man was Brian Hudson. Groomsman was Matt Sanders, brother of the groom.

Ringbearers were Christian and Sebastian Zamora and flower attendant was Ivan Zamora, all sons of the bride.

Ushers were Dena Ward and Kristy Misiaszek.

The bride graduated from Dodge City Senior High School. She is employed by Dodge City Raceway Park as the operations manager.

The groom graduated from Great Bend High School. He is employed by Great Western Tire as the shop foreman.

The couple reside at Dodge City.

Gottschalk —

Cristan Janae Welch and Clinton James Gottschalk were united in marriage on July 8 in a double-ring ceremony presided over by the Rev. Kevin Weber of Hays and Rev. Jim Lohmeyer of Eagle, Neb., at Immaculate Heart of Mary in Hays.

Parents of the couple are John and Connie Gilzinger and Jim and Shirley Welch of Great Bend and Gene and Kay Gottschalk of Hays.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Jon Welch of Great Bend, wore a two-piece gown featuring a ball-gown skirt with a sheer overlay that swept into a semi-cathedral train. It was embellished with lace medallions and enhanced with pearls. She wore a fingertip-length veil with a tiara. Her cascading bouquet was made of white roses, hydrangea and wistaria.

Maid of honor was Rachael Schultz of Hays. Bridesmaids were Jennifer Kaiser, sister of the bride, Jamie Welch, sister-in-law of the bride, both of Great Bend, Jade Parrson of Hays and Holly Gottschalk of Lawrence, sister of the groom.

Best man was Aaron Gottschalk of Overland Park, brother of the groom. Groomsman were Chad Stremel and Ryan Staab both of Hays, Scott Schmidt of Manhattan, and Wyatt Grandclair of Hoisington, cousin of the bride.

Ushers were Jon Welch of Great Bend, brother of the bride, Brandon Werth of Hutchinson, cousin of the groom, Brett Bittle of Lawrence, and Greg Albright of Hoisington. Flower girl was Anna Gottschalk of Hays, cousin of the groom. Ringbearers were Haven and Kadin Welch of Great Bend, nephews of the bride. Candlelighters were Beth Lohmeyer of Eagle, Neb., godmother of the bride, and Sue Lester of Baldwin City, godmother of the groom. Kay Werth was the pianist and Austin and Preston Werth played cello and violin; all of Hays. Vocalist was Kathy Amrein of Hays.

The bride is a 2002 graduate of Great Bend High School. She is attending Fort Hays State University, majoring in office technology where she will graduate in 2007. She is employed part-time at Hamm's True Value in Hays during the week and a housewife in Lawrence on weekends.

The groom is a 2000 graduate of Hays High School. He attended North Central Kansas Technical College, graduating in 2003 with a degree in residential electricity. He also attended Northwestern Kansas Technical College in 2005, obtaining a journeyman's license in electrical and, in 2006, obtained an associate's in HVAC-R. He is employed for Lynn Electric in Lawrence.

September 10, 2006

Siemsen —

Tessa Leigh Bodine and Jason Scott Siemsen were united in marriage on May 27 at the First United Methodist Church in Great Bend. The Rev. Gary Brooks presided over the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Parents of the couple are Steve and Tonni Bodine of Great Bend and Steve and Sherry Siemsen of Holyrood. Grandparents of the bride are Dale and Carol Bodine of Great Bend, Glenna Bodine-Grant of Garden City, the late Jack Grant and the late Freda Smith. Grandparents of the groom are Robert and Judy Siemsen of Holyrood and the late Vernon and Mae Klima. The maid of honor was Talia Bodine of Overland Park. Bridesmaids were Rachel Linenberger of Great Bend and Amanda Koerner of Hays.

The best man was Patrick Siemsen of Holyrood. Groomsman were J.R. (Justin) Ringwald of New Holland, Pa., and Ted Schepmann of Holyrood. Ushers were Darren Siemsen and Taylor Siemsen, both of Holyrood, and Tom Parsons of Great Bend. Flower girl was Alison Bodine of Great Bend. Vocalist was Jeff Jackson and pianist was Jenny Alford.

The bride is a graduate of Fort Hays State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in medical diagnostic imaging. She is employed by the University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City as a radiological technologist.

The groom attended Fort Hays State University, studying finance and criminal justice. He is employed by J & B Foam of DeSoto.

The couple reside in Overland Park.

Cecil —

Jill Elizabeth Dema and Dr. Christopher Craig Cecil were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony on June 10 at the outdoor pavilion on the grounds of the Hotel Albuquerque in Old Town.

Parents of the couple are Robert and Carol Dema of Great Bend and Irene Cecil of Lombard, Ill., and the late Dr. Thomas Cecil.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a strapless ivory, matte satin gown with hand beading on the bodice and a cathedral length train. Her fingertip, scalloped veil was trimmed with matching beads. She carried a satin wrapped, hand-tied bouquet of ivory and fuchsia roses.

The matron of honor was Julie Stuhlsatz of Great Bend, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Cristy Candler of New York City and Kylee Leatherman of Kansas City, Mo., cousin of the bride. They wore floor length black taffeta skirts with black and silver plaid bodices.

The best man was Brendan Cecil of Lombard, Ill., brother of the groom. Groomsman were Dr. Brian Cecil of Downers Grove, Ill., and Thomas Cecil of Lombard, Ill., brothers of the groom.

The flower girl was Madison Martinez of Albuquerque, N.M., and the ring bearer was Tyler Stuhlsatz of Great Bend, nephew of the bride. The candle lighters were Grace Brahler of Lawrence and Alex Leatherman of Kansas City, Mo., cousins of the bride. Their escorts were Shane and Shilo Schaake of Westmoreland, cousins of the bride. The vocalists were George Brahler of Lawrence and Elizabeth Harwood of Irving, Texas, cousins of the bride. Readers were Franck Bennisoussan of Los Angeles, Calif., and Patty Harwood of Plano, Texas, aunt of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception, dinner and dance were held in the outdoor area adjoining the pavilion.

The bride is a certified Pilates instructor and licensed massage therapist. She owns her own business in Albuquerque.

The groom is a chiropractor and the owner of Albuquerque Neck and Back Pain.

After a honeymoon in Italy, the couple are at home in Albuquerque.

September 3, 2006

Keeler —

Dana Lynn Hartman and Jason Andrew Keeler were united in marriage on April 22 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Park.

The bride is the daughter of LeRoy and Vera Hartman of Grainfield and the groom is the son of Eldon and Edalea Keeler of Great Bend. Grandparents of the bride are the late Wendelin and Suzanna Hartman and John and Anna Riedel. Grandparents of the groom are George and Ada Fabin and the late William Lewis and Claude and Iva Keeler. Given in marriage by her father, the Rev. Dermot E. Tighe officiated the double-ring ceremony. Honor attendant was Kay Haffner, sister of the bride. Attendants were Nicole Godek and Kim Church, sisters of the bride and Terri Keeler, sister of the groom. Junior bridesmaids were Courtney Haffner and Ally Church, nieces of the bride. Best man was Tony Keeler, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Chad Vawter, Nick Barton and Jason Leach. Ushers were JB Church, Rodney Hafner and Dan Godek, brothers-in-law of the bride. Ring bearers were Kaleb Church and Elliot Godek, nephews of the bride. Flower girl was Kendra Haffner, niece of the bride. Personal attendant was Robyn Cramer. The bride is a 1998 graduate of Wheatland High School. She received her bachelor's degree in business management from Kansas State University. She received an associate's degree in dental hygiene from Johnson County Community College. She is employed as a registered dental hygienist for Dr. Charles R. Kimes, DDS, in Overland Park. The groom is a 1996 graduate of Great Bend High School. He received a bachelor's degree in advertising and public relations from Kansas State University. He is employed as an advertising specialist for Ascend Media in Overland Park. The couple will reside in Olathe.

Moeder —

Kimberly Roxane Witter and Keith William Moeder were united in marriage on July 22 at Victory Church of Penticton in Penticton, British Columbia. Pastor Trevor Hoffmann presided over the double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Melvin and Katherine Witter of Keremeos, British Columbia, and the groom is the son of Ken Moeder and Marilyn Moeder both of Great Bend. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Larresha and Kaiden Witter stood with their mother and the groom, joining the Moeder family in the ceremony. Maid of honor was Laura Allison, sister of the bride, from Keremeos, B.C. Best man was Ken Moeder. Ushers were Corey Witter (brother of the bride) and Tyler Allison (nephew of the bride). Symbolic candles were lit by Marilyn Moeder and Katherine Witter. Reader was Emily Moeder of Lenexa, sister of the groom. Vocalist was Cathy Nath of Rocky Mountain, Alberta, and the pianist was Jocelyn Hamm of Kelowna, B.C. The bride is a graduate of Similkameen High School of Keremeos, B.C., and the Cornerstone Ministry Training Institute of Peace River, Alberta, with a degree in pastoral leadership and missions. She is a certified education assistant. The groom is a graduate of Great Bend High School and Emporia State University, with a bachelor's degree in education. He is a seventh and eighth grade science and math teacher at Bridgeport, Wash., Middle School. The couple resides in Osyoos, British Columbia.

Great Bend Tribune

2012 Forest Ave.
Great Bend, KS. 67530

620-792-1211
800-950-8742
email@gbtribune.com

October 29, 2006

Steiner —

Tara Kay Romme and Frank Anthony Steiner were united in marriage Sept. 23 at Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church in Hays, with the Rev. Joseph Kieffer officiating. The bride was escorted by her father.

Parents of the couple are Merlin and Janice Romme of Hays and Richard and Carol Steiner of Great Bend. Grandparent of the groom is Lawrence Liebl of Claflin.

Honor attendant was Amanda Unrein. Attendants were Cindy Steiner, sister of the groom, and Adrea Ree and Kristen Strickland.

Best man was Clint Steiner, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Jesse Anderson, Ryan Stos and Brent Hansen.

Flower girls were Haley Troyer, niece of the groom, and Brianna Romme and Jenna Romme, nieces of the bride. Ring bearer was Chase Romme, nephew of the bride. Candelighters were Grant Romme and Nathan Romme, nephews of the bride.

Ushers were Todd Donze and Jason Cooper.

The bride is a graduate of Thomas More Prep-Marian High School and Kansas State University with a master's degree in accounting. She is employed by PriceWaterhouseCoopers LLC in Kansas City.

The groom is a graduate of Great Bend High School and Kansas State University with a bachelor's degree in architecture. He is employed by Gould Evans Associates in Kansas City.

Following a honeymoon in Ocho Rios, Jamaica, the couple is at home in Kansas City, Mo.

Green —

Sarah Hill and Chris Green were united in marriage on July 29 at the Fox Theater in Hutchinson. The Rev. Michael P. Milliken and the Rev. M. Darward Penry, grandfather of the bride of Springfield Mo., officiated the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Dr. Lary and Diane Hill of Andover and Dick and Barbara Green of Manhattan. Grandparents are Bill and Mary Hill of Great Bend, M. Durward Penry of Springfield, Mo., and the late Mary Jo Penry, Loral and Elva Stephens and Edith Green.

The bride's attendants were Bailey Marable of Topeka, Lauren Beatty, Billy Steffens and Hillary Emerson, all of Lawrence, Sarah Meadows-Cooper of Madison, Wis., and Kate Hill of Andover.

The groom's attendants were Dick Green of Manhattan, Rob Lawrence of Kansas City, Chris Lasher of Cameron, Mo., Allison Green of Manhattan and Michael Westlake of Whitehorse, Yukon. Honorary groomsman was Vignesh Ramen of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Ushers were Jonathan Hill, brother of the bride, of Andover, and Clayton Hill, of Hoxie, and Evan Williams of Fort Scott, both cousins of the bride.

The bride graduated from Andover High School and the University of Kansas. She is a writer and editor for the Kansas Health Institute.

The groom graduated from Manhattan High School, Baker University and the University of Edinburgh in Scotland. He is a statehouse correspondent with Harris News Service.

The couple resides in Topeka.

October 22, 2006

Fyler -

Jennifer Lynn Friedly and Christopher Lee Fyler were united in marriage on Aug. 26 at the First Christian Church in Great Bend. Parents of the couple are Roger D. and Joree Friedly of Hoisington, Ron and Beth Fyler of Olmitz and Karen and Paul Lambert of Gillette, Wyo. Grandparents of the bride are Joe and Iree Boyter of Green Valley, Ariz., and the late Leonard H. and Bonnie J. Friedly. Grandparents of the groom are Marian Miller of Albert and Mildred Fyler and Larry Mohler of Larned.

The Rev. William B. Johnson officiated the double-ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Heather Meyer of Great Bend. Bridesmaids were Jennifer Haynes of Hoisington and Johnnie Mead of Great Bend.

The best man was Michael Haynes of Hoisington. Groomsmen were Brandon Fyler of Great Bend and Jeremy Fyler of Kansas City, brothers of the groom.

Flower girl was JoDe LaRae Friedly, daughter of the bride. Ushers were Ryan Friedly of Hoisington, brother of the bride, and Kyle Dav is of Great Bend, stepbrother of the groom. Greeters were Kayti Dav is and Kimmi Davis of Olmitz, stepsisters of the groom.

The bride is a 2006 graduate of Hoisington High School. She is employed as a teller at Farmers Bank and Trust.

The groom is a 2002 graduate of Otis-Bison High School. He is employed at Orscheln Farm and Home Supply in Great Bend and farms with his father.

The couple resides in Great Bend.

October 15, 2006

Grossardt - Krebaum

Tasha Grossardt and Kyle Krebaum were united in marriage on Aug. 12 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Great Bend.

Parents of the couple are Roger and Connie Grossardt of Claflin and Jim and Judy Krebaum of Great Bend. The Rev. Reginald Urban officiated the double-ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor was Jeri Postlethwaite of Wichita. Bridesmaids were Amber Grossardt and Heather Grossardt both of Salina, and Michelle Nichol of Thornton, Colo. Junior bridesmaid was Raegan Mantz of Sterling.

Best man was Kevin Krebaum of Kansas City, Mo. Groomsmen were Jake Resner and Brett Wondra both of Overland Park, and Jason Demel of Great Bend. Junior groomsman was Kade Krebaum of Kansas City, Mo.

Ushers were Brandon Grossardt of Rochester, Minn., Blake Wayson of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Joel Postlethwaite of Wichita. Flower girls were Megan Krebaum and Julianna Krebaum both of Kansas City, Mo. Ring bearer was Devon Grossardt of Salina. Joyce Haberman was organist and Julie Mitchell was vocalist, both of Great Bend.

The bride graduated from Claflin High School. She earned an Associate's in Business degree from Barton County Community College. She is employed at Farmers Bank and Trust in the proof department.

The groom is a graduate of Great Bend High School. He graduated Kansas State University with a Bachelor of Science degree and Palmer College of Chiropractic in 2005. He is a doctor at Kinsley Chiropractic.

The couple reside in Great Bend.

October 8, 2006

Arritt -

Monique Renee DePue of Hoisington and James Michael Arritt of Woodbridge, Va., were united in marriage on Dec. 17, 2005, at the Middlebury Church of the Brethren in Middlebury, Ind. The bride is the daughter of Stephen and Judy DePue of Goshen, Ind. The groom is the son of Callie Arritt of Woodbridge, and the late James C. Arritt. Jim Mockabee and Shawn Winters, assisted by Glen Loewen, officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her paternal grandmother's wedding gown refinished with red trim and beads by Edna Van Diepenbos and Judy DePue. The maid of honor was Vanessa DePue, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Beth Liebespach, Selena Riddle, Melissa Flint and Rael Swigert.

The best man was Matthew Arritt, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Paul Hunter, Dan Hofherr, Gordon Brown and Thom Lacey.

Flower girl was Chloe Riddle and the ring bearer was Daniel M. Hofherr. Ushers were Rich Liebespach, Jay Sublett, and Bob Wilburn.

The bride attended Manchester College in N. Manchester, Ind., where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree.

The groom is a graduate of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Va., and George Mason University in Va. He has a Bachelor of Arts degree.

The couple reside in Dale City, Va.

Brenner -

Marya Winkler from Great Bend and Gary Brenner from Beeler were united in marriage on July 28 at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Great Bend. The Rev. Reginald Urban officiated the doubling ceremony.

Parents of the bride are JoAnn Winkler of Great Bend and the late Wilbur Winkler. Parents of the groom are Ben and Margaret Brenner of Beeler.

Maid of honor was Wendy Winkler of Great Bend.

Best man was Doug Brenner of Oakley.

The organist was Connie Schneweis of Great Bend, vocalist was Bryan Pinkall of Manhattan and the lector was Jaron Zamarripa, son of the bride.

The bride is a hair stylist at Hair Central in Great Bend.

The groom is a farmer.

The couple reside in rural Beeler.

October 1, 2006

Keenan -

Danielle Dykes of Mission and Patrick Keenan of Olathe were united in marriage on May 27 at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church in Great Bend. The Rev. Reggie Urban officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Luke and Renee Dykes and Dennis and Eileen Keenan all of Great Bend. Grandparents of the bride are Hap and Lola Donecker from Great Bend and Phil and Theresa Carlson from Salina.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown with a beaded gold embroidered bodice and organza skirt featuring a lace-up back and cathedral train. Her cathedral veil was secured with a tiara of pearls, rhinestones and crystals. She carried a satin-wrapped, hand-tied bouquet of ivory tulips and roses.

The maid of honor was Sarah Dykes, sister of the bride, of Great Bend. Bridesmaids were Erin VanCamp, of Olathe, Brooke Heier, of Overland Park and Jennifer Robbins, sister of the groom, of Kansas City, Mo. They wore chocolate, European-satin strapless 3/4-length dresses with a chocolate ribbon tied at the waist. They carried satin-wrapped hand-tied bouquets of pink tulips.

The best man was Ryan Keenan, brother of the groom, of West Hartford, Conn. Groomsmen were Matthew Mingenback, of Dallas, Texas, Matthew Gerstner, of Wichita and Bryan Robbins, brother-in-law of the groom, of Kansas City, Mo.

Ushers were Bryan Folkerts, cousin of the groom, of Overland Park and Josh Sheets, cousin of the bride, of Albert.

The bride's personal attendant was Heather Brincks, of West Hartford, Conn. Candlelighters were Sarah Call, of Mission and Megan McMullen of Lawrence. Vocalist was Tami Strobel of Great Bend. Organist was Joyce Haberman of Great Bend.

Violinist was Purvi Patel of Shawnee.

Terry Keenan from Ness City was the lector and Pat Keenan from Great Bend and Joe Leiker from Olathe were the Eucharistic ministers.

The bride is a 2000 graduate of Great Bend High School. She graduated from the University of Kansas in 2004 with a Bachelor of Science in education and will graduate in May from the University of Kansas Medical Center with a doctorate of physical therapy.

The groom is a 2000 graduate of Great Bend High School. He graduated from the University of Kansas in 2004 with a Bachelor of General Studies degree. He is employed at Freightquote.com as a new business representative.

The couple reside in Olathe.

Gray -

Elizabeth Marie Rich Everhart and Landon Bryce Gray were united in marriage on July 22 at Trinity United Methodist Church in Great Bend in a double-ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. Julie Shields.

Parents of the bride are Edward and Deanna Rich from Canton. Parents of the groom are Lewis and Loretta Gray from Great Bend.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Crystal Gray of Marion, sister of the groom. Bridesmaid was Connie Brown of Hutchinson.

The bestman was Mickey Wear from El Dorado. Groomsman was Joe Burgery, from Sylvia.

Ushers were Mark Straub of Emporia, brother-in-law of the groom, and Rickey Mason of Great Bend.

Soloist was Allison Smith of Emporia, friend of the maid of honor.

The bride is a graduate of Canton-Galva High School and Professional Development Institute. She is employed as a paraprofessional teacher at Buhler High School.

The groom is a graduate of Great Bend High School and Flint Hills Technical Institute. He is employed as an auto technician at Conklin Cars in Hutchinson.

The couple reside in Hutchinson.

November 26, 2006

Klepper —

Kimberly Kay Sieker and Dallas John Klepper were united in marriage on Sept. 23 at St. John Lutheran Church in Ellinwood. Pastor Merlyn Lohrke of Cunningham officiated the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the bride are Jerry and Marcia Sieker of Ellinwood. Parents of the groom are David and Janice Klepper of Great Bend. Grandparents of the bride are Wanda Sieker of Ellinwood and the late Harry Sieker and William Doherty of Great Bend and the late Benita Doherty. Grandparents of the groom are Kenneth and Marilyn Klepper of Great Bend and the late Raymond and Betty Gagelman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white strapless satin A-line gown with a split back and beaded metallic embroidery on the bodice and chapel train and a fingertip veil with crystal beads and metallic edge. Her headpiece was an Austrian crystal tiara with a floral leaf design. She wore a crystal necklace and bracelet belonging to her late grandmother. The bride also carried a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother. She carried a nosegay-style bouquet with hot pink and red roses with hydrium berries and a wrapped handle with sheer ribbon.

Maid of honor was Kelci Sieker of Ellinwood, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Lindsay Peters of Great Bend, sister of the groom, and Erica Drummond of Lawrence, friend of the bride. They wore halter organza tea length dresses in apple red and carried nosegay-style bouquets with hot pink and red roses and hydrium berries with hot pink ribbon on the handles.

The best man was Kyle Sieker of Shawnee, brother of the bride. Groomsmen were Kevin Sieker of Shawnee, brother of the bride, and Kenny Titus of Manhattan, friend of the groom.

Flower girl was Ellie Peters of Great Bend, niece of the groom. She wore a white sleeveless satin gown with a beaded tulle skirt, apple red satin sash and apple red bow on the back. The ringbearer was Ian Wietharn of Topeka, cousin of the groom.

Ushers were Brian Sieker of Overland Park, cousin of the bride, and Nick Graf of Manhattan, cousin of the groom. Candlelighters were Paige Mauch and Kylie Mauch, both of Salina, cousins of the groom.

Organist was Paula Hamm of Ellinwood. Trumpeter was Marc Webster of Great Bend. Pianists were Nancy Baxter and Lori Underwood, both of Great Bend, cousins of the bride. Vocalists were Kelci Sieker of Ellinwood, sister of the bride, and Lori Underwood, Great Bend, cousin of the bride.

The bride is a 2001 graduate of Ellinwood High School, a 2003 graduate of Barton County Community College and a 2005 graduate of Kansas State University with a bachelor of science degree in psychology. She is employed by USD 383 in Manhattan as a special education paraprofessional.

The groom is a 2002 graduate of Great Bend High School. He attended Barton County Community College and Kansas State University. He is employed by the City of Manhattan Utilities in Manhattan.

After a honeymoon in Ocho Rios, Jamaica, the couple reside in Manhattan.

Miller —

Diana Lea Holopirek and Matthew Ray Miller were united in marriage on June 3 at St. Andrew Catholic Church in Abilene. Parents of the couple are Terry and Alice Holopirek of Timken and William and Vicky Miller of Enterprise. Father Henry Baxa officiated the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Jeanette Holopirek of Timken. Bridesmaids were Jodi Holopirek of Otis, Jill Kruse of Hutchinson, Michelle Anderson of Natoma and Jessica Feldhausen of Albert.

The best men were Beau Miller and Billy Miller, both of Manhattan. Groomsmen were Aaron Strunk, Eric Brown and Guy Winters Jr., all of Abilene.

The flower girl was Alissa Keith of Hill City. Ringbearer was Caylus Cregg of Lawrence. Ushers were Matthew Holopirek of Tempe, Ariz., Rusty Feldhausen of Albert and Andrew Pechanec of Lynn Haven, Fla.

The bride is a graduate of Otis-Bison High School and Fort Hays State University. She is employed at Ameriprise Financial Services in Abilene as a paraplanner and registered principal delegate.

The groom is a graduate of Abilene High School and Fort Hays State University. He is employed by Cargill in Salina as a merchandiser. After a wedding trip to Ocho Rios, Jamaica the couple is at home in Enterprise.

November 19, 2006

McCord — Dombroski

Heather Ann McCord and Trenton Robert Dombroski were united in marriage on May 27 at St. John Lutheran Church in Ellinwood. The Rev. Merlyn Lohrke officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Bill and Tanya McCord of Ellinwood. Grandparents of the bride are Abe and Imogene Goodwin of Great Bend and Bill Byrum of Payson, Ariz., and Wanda Gregory of Phoenix, Ariz. The groom is the son of Bob and Connie Dombroski of Hill City and Patty Eggers of Ellinwood. Grandparents of the groom are Robert and Janet Dombroski of Plainville, Harry and Helen Clark of Hill City and the late Bob and Wanda Wambold.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white, one-piece, vintage taffeta and Vidal lace, strapless, A-line gown with corset back. The gown featured an elegant lace overlay on the bodice that created an asymmetrical lowered waist. A taffeta empire-band sprinkled with crystals and silver lacing decorated the bodice. The taffeta skirt was accented with gentle folds of fabric that swept up at the side to reveal an enchanting lace hem. The chapel train was adorned with rich lace. The bride wore a handmade tiara, necklace and earrings from Maggie Sottero's Victoria Lee collection made from the finest Swarovski crystals and pearls. Each piece was unique. She carried a bouquet of silk flowers of burnt orange, chocolate, ivory and gold accented with crystal jewels for extra sparkle.

The matron of honor was Amy Schmitt of Burdett. The bridesmaids were Julie Ney of Great Bend, Caroline Boese of LaCrosse, and Misty Ravenstein of Hutchinson. Jessica Muller of Ellinwood was the junior bridesmaid. Schmitt and Boese wore Jordan gowns. The dresses were a burnt-orange, with a one-piece fall-line skirt and beaded front godet and strapless beaded bodices. Muller wore a matching dress in a cinnamon color. Ravenstein and Ney wore V-line, backless, halter-top silhouette gowns, with empire waist that were accented with beaded jewels and a small train. They carried a smaller version of the bride's bouquet.

Flower girls were Ragan Nickless and Taylor Nickless, both of Great Bend. Ragan wore a chocolate-brown dress and Taylor wore a burnt-orange dress. The dresses were from the Jordan collection. They were beautifully bodiced with shirred cap sleeves and a full, shirred skirt. The dresses were accented with rhinestone trim.

The best man was Darrel Maley of Ellis. Groomsmen were Nolan Fabricius of Manhattan, Larry Herbst of Bogue, and Travis Carswell, brother of the groom of Phillipsburg. Ring bearer was Tristin Carswell, nephew of the groom of Sterling. Ushers were Chris McCord, brother of the bride of Ellinwood, Mike Birzer of Ellinwood, and Chris and Brandon Maser, cousins of the bride, from Great Bend.

Soloists were Shelly Ramsey of Great Bend and Erica Keffer and Josh Greer both of Ellinwood.

The bride graduated from Ellinwood High School and Barton County Community College with degrees in graphic design and liberal arts.

She is employed at Eisenhower Elementary School as a LD paraprofessional working with children in the second through fourth grades.

The groom graduated from Hill City High School and attended Hutchinson Community College. He is employed by Rural Telephone as warehouse assistant at Hays.

The couple resides in Great Bend.

Kern —

Lynn Schneider and Gregg Kern were united in marriage on Sept. 30 at Dozier Vineyard and Winery in Ellinwood. The Rev. Mike Pfortmiller officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Gerald and June Schneider, Gary and Carolyn Kern, all of Great Bend, Mary Sue Schneider of Hoisington and Brian and Ellen Ernst of Hutchinson. Grandparents of the bride are Esther Schneider of Great Bend and the late Paul Schneider and Willard and Ruby Anderson. Grandparents of the groom are Ethel Baldwin of Great Bend, Dale and Virginia Kern of Hutchinson and the late Vern Baldwin and Lucille Kern.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a matte satin gown featuring a short-sleeve, Basque waistline bodice with a scoop neckline.

The full-shirred skirt flowed into a cathedral-length train. Hand-beading and Alencon lace embellished the entire gown. The train was accented with bows down the entire length.

The matron of honor was Pam Jenkinson of Great Bend. Bridesmaids were Jamie Wolf and Karen Riedl of Hoisington and Haley Guesnier of Great Bend.

The best man was Chris Kirmer of Holyrood. Groomsmen were Terry Steele of Claremore, Okla., Dan Shoemaker of Oakley and Mike Gilzinger of Hutchinson.

Flower girl was Kennedy Kern, daughter of the couple and ring bearer was Jeremiah Steele of Hutchinson. Ushers were Cliff White, cousin of the bride of Great Bend and Daryl Keener of Hutchinson.

Vocalist was Kinnat Whelan. Organist was Dianna Webster and trumpet was played by Marc Webster, all of Great Bend.

The bride is a graduate of Hoisington High School and National College with a Bachelor of Science degree. She is employed by CPI Qualified Plan Consultants as a document specialist.

The groom is a graduate of Great Bend High School and attended Barton County Community College. He is employed by Parts, Inc., in Great Bend.

The couple reside in Great Bend.

November 12, 2006

Kern -

Gregg Kern and Lynn Schneider were united in marriage on Sept. 20 at Dozier Vineyard and Winery in Ellinwood. Pastor Mike Pfortmiller officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Gerald and June Schneider, Gary and Carolyn Kern, all of Great Bend, Mary Sue Schneider of Hoisington and Brian and Ellen Ernst of Hutchinson. Grandparents of the bride are Esther Schneider of Great Bend and the late Paul Schneider and Willard and Ruby Anderson. Grandparents of the groom are Ethel Baldwin of Great Bend, Dale and Virginia Kern of Hutchinson and the late Vern Baldwin and Lucille Kern.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a matte satin gown featuring a short sleeve, basque waistline bodice with a scoop neckline.

The full shirred skirt flowed into a cathedral length train. Hand beading and alencon lace embellished the entire gown. The train was accented with bows down the entire length.

The matron of honor was Pan Jenkinson of Great Bend. Bridesmaids were Jamie Wolf and Karen Riedl of Hoisington and Haley Guesnier of Great Bend.

The best man was Chris Kirmer of Holyrood. Groomsmen were Terry Steele of Claremore, Okla., Dan Shoemaker of Oakley and Mike Gilzinger of Hutchinson.

Flower girl was Kennedy Kern, daughter of the couple and ring bearer was Jeremiah Steele of Hutchinson. Ushers were Cliff White, cousin of the bride of Great Bend and Daryl Keener of Hutchinson.

Vocalist was Kinnat Whelan. Organist was Dianna Webster and trumpet was played by Marc Webster, all of Great Bend.

The bride is a graduate of Hoisington High School and National College with a Bachelor of Science degree. She is employed by CPI Qualified Plan Consultants as a Document Specialist.

The groom is a graduate of Great Bend High School and attended Barton County Community College. He is employed by Parts, Inc., in Great Bend.

The couple reside in Great Bend.

Mathews -

Carrie Lynn Evers and Joshua Alan Mathews were united in marriage on June 17 at St. Andrews Gold Club in Overland Park. The Rev. Mark Stones of Eureka, uncle of the bride, officiated the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Margaret Evers of Great Bend and the late Lynn Evers and Rich and Lisa Mathews of Lansing. Grandparents are Bob and Betty Wondra of Great Bend, Patricia Evers of Ellinwood and the late Earl O. Evers, Dave and Betty Moser of Abingdon, Ill., and Les and Irma Mathews of Kingwood, Tx.

Given in marriage by her brother, Cory D. Evers of Lawrence, the bride wore an A-line halter gown of white satin trimmed in silver and clear beading and embroidery and a fingertip veil gathered to beaded headpiece fashioned from the bride's mother's wedding veil. The bride also wore a necklace designed from her mother's wedding ring. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white daisies and blue hydrangea embellished with greenery and brown ribbon. The bride also carried a handkerchief belonging to her late father, embroidered by both of her grandmothers and a locket containing her late father's picture.

Matrons of honor were Cynthia Esfeld, of Olive Branch, Miss., and Christine Gebhardt, of Salina, both sisters of the bride. Bridesmaids were Erin Phillips of Chicago, Ill., Briane Mathews of Shawnee and Diana Paris of Dighton, all friends of the bride. They wore two piece chiffon dresses in cornflower blue and chocolate brown and carried bouquets of white daisies with yellow ribbon streamers.

Bestman was John Dalton of St. Peters, Mo, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Trevor Waggoner of Jefferson City, Aaron Paris of Dighton, Chris Few of Richmond, Va., and Pat McKenney of Chicago, all friends of the groom.

Flower girls were Madison and Rylie Gebhardt of Salina, nieces of the bride. They wore matching pale yellow chiffon dresses with sheer top skirts trimmed in ivory. Ringbearers were Dalton and Logan Esfeld of Olive Branch, Miss., nephews of the bride. Ushers were Shawn Casey of Lansing and Ken Foley of Boulder, Colo., both friends of the groom. Violinist was Alex Shum of Kansas City, Mo.

The bride is a 2000 graduate of Hoisington High School and a 2005 graduate of Kansas State University with a bachelors degree in business/finance. She is employed as a loan processor for American Equity Mortgage in St. Louis, Mo.
The groom is a 2000 graduate of Lansing High School in Lansing and a 2004 graduate of Kansas State University with a bachelors degree in computer engineering. He is employed as a software engineer for Boeing of St. Louis.
The couple reside in Chesterfield, Mo.

Great Bend Tribune

2012 Forest Ave.
Great Bend, KS. 67530

620-792-1211
800-950-8742
email@gbtribune.com

December 31, 2006

Paul —

Misty McDuff of Great Bend and Tyler Paul of Chapman, were united in marriage on July 22 at First United Methodist Church in Great Bend, with the Rev. Gary Brooks officiating the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the bride are Paul and Sharon Otter of Great Bend and Jaime and Shaila McDuff of Newton. Parents of the groom are Richard and Vicki Paul of Enterprise.

Given in marriage by her fathers, the bride wore an elegant, diamond-white, satin gown styled in a strapless princess silhouette with delicate seed beads and crystals at the top of the bodice. The Maggie Sottero gown featured a lace-up corset back and a wrapped detail at the waist, accented by seed beads and crystals. Her semi-full ballroom skirt swept into its own chapel train with matching beadwork at the end of the train. She wore a finger-tip length veil trimmed in crystal bugle beads and a tiara of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a satin-wrapped hand-tied bouquet of pink roses.

The matron of honor was Jamie Tribble, sister of the bride, of Houston, Texas. Maid of honor was Tonya Martinez of Wichita. Bridesmaids were Amanda Bauman of Wichita, Cheryl Tolan of Great Bend, Angie Harrison of St. George, Casey Sump of Hays, and Nicole Chastain of Overland Park. Junior bridesmaid was Kaitlin Otter, sister of the bride, of Great Bend. The bridesmaids wore lipstick-pink satin gowns from the Jordan collection. The gowns were designed in a strapless silhouette, featuring a wrapped detail at the waist. They carried satin-wrapped hand-tied bouquets of pink-tipped ivory roses.

Best man was Shane Paul, brother of the groom, of Harrisonville, Mo. Groomsmen were Aaron Paul, brother of the groom, of Waco, Texas, Drew Snitker of Manhattan, David Will of Seattle, Wash., Luke Waller and Dave Stucky both of Topeka.

Flower girl was Madison Otter, sister of the bride, of Great Bend. Ring bearer was Dalton Shaw, cousin of the groom, of Ottawa. Ushers were Lance Rhodes, cousin of the bride, of Great Bend and Jeremy Bolinger of Emporia. Candle lighters were Brianne Rome of Wamego and Ashley Rome of Hays. Personal attendant was Adrienne Collins of Emporia. Soloist was Shane Paul, brother of the groom. Organist was Jean Book of Enterprise.

The bride is a 1999 graduate of Great Bend High School, and a 2002 graduate of Barton County Community College with an associate's degree in applied sciences. She is also a 2001 graduate of Sidney's Hairdressing College. She is a cosmetologist at One With Earth Salon and Spa, in Topeka.

The groom is a 2000 graduate of Chapman High School, and a 2004 graduate of Emporia State with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He is currently continuing his education at Washburn University School of Law.

The couple reside in Topeka.

Rossman —

Mary Lynn Haffner and Jason Allan Rossman were united in marriage on Sept. 30 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Great Bend. The Rev. Reginald Urban officiated the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are George and Donna Haffner and Verlyn and Kathy Rossman.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother.

Maid of honor was Julie Carroll, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Kathy Schmidtberger, Katelyn Schmidtberger and Elaine Pietersz.

Best man was Chris Sohm. Groomsmen were Eric Juno, Bobby Trapp, and Lance Ficken.

Ushers were Jeremy Sohm, Shane DeWald and Jamie Holperick.

The bride is a graduate of Wheatland High School and Wichita State University with an elementary education degree. She is employed by Riley Elementary School in Great Bend as a second grade teacher.

The groom is a graduate of Otis-Bison High School and Fort Hays State University. He is employed by Oklahoma Railroad in Hoisington.

The couple reside in Great Bend.

December 24, 2006

Staab —

Jade Nicole Parrson and Ryan Lee Staab were united in marriage on Aug. 5 at St. Catherine Church in Catharine, presided by the Rev. Gilmory Tallman of Hays. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father.

Parents of the bride are Regina and Alan Rose of Ellinwood, and Kelly and DeAnna Parrson of Marinette, Wis. Parents of the groom are Robert and Linda Staab of Hays. Grandparents are Urban Wensmann of Leavenworth and the late Shirlie Wensmann; the late Jack and Venessa Parrson; Marcella Klein of Hays and the late Sylvester Klein; Viola Staab of Catharine and the late Elmer Staab.

Maid of honor was Tiffany Gies. Bridesmaids were Erica Tiede Dora Branyan and Laura Brunner, sister of the groom.

Best man was Scott Schmidt. Groomsmen were Clint Gottschalk, Eric Schmidt and Travis Brunner, brother-in-law of the groom.

Ushers were Chris Grandy, Chad Stramel, Brandon Werth and Mikhael Parrson, brother of the bride.

Flower girls were Cassandra Clubine and Sydney Wonnell, cousins of the bride. Ring bearer was Connor Staab, cousin of the groom.

Candle lighters were Chadd Clubine, cousin of the bride and Candace Staab, cousin of the groom. Lectors were Shelly Clubine, aunt/godmother of the bride and Charlie Staab, uncle of the groom. Eucharistic minister was Pat Staab, uncle of the groom. Vocalist was Natalie Wonnell, aunt of the bride.

The bride is a 1999 graduate of Hoisington High School. She received a bachelor of education degree in early childhood education and a certificate of leadership from Washburn University in 2004. She received a master of science degree in adaptive special education from Fort Hays State University in 2006. She is a Head Start/early childhood special education teacher with the Hays Public School District.

The groom is a 2000 graduate of Thomas More Prep-Marian High School in Hays. He received a bachelor of science degree in agriculture from Fort Hays State University in 2005. He is employed at Hays Medical Center.

The couple reside in Hays.

December 3, 2006

Debes — Spohr

Caitlin Marie Debes and Wesley Ryan Spohr were united in marriage on July 1 at First Christian Church in Great Bend. The Rev. William Johnson officiated. Parents of the bride are Jim and Susan Debes of Great Bend. Parents of the groom are Dennis and Marla Spohr of Dodge City. Grandparents of the bride are Lois Replogle of Great Bend and the late Dr. Charles Replogle and the late Lawrence and Mary Margaret Debes. Grandparents of the groom are Wayne and Helen Payton of Emporia, Lorraine Spohr of Dodge City and the late Herbert Spohr.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an elegant diamond-white organza over matte-satin gown designed in princess silhouette, featuring a strapless neckline with a delicately beaded motif across the bodice. The A-line skirt swept from a wrapped-waist detail into its own chapel train. A crystal and rhinestone tiara held her chapel-length bridal illusion veil. She carried a colonial-style bouquet of vogue and hot pink princess roses with lily grass entwined over the top of the satin-wrapped stems.

The maid of honor was Madison Debes, sister of the bride, of Great Bend. The bridesmaids were Lacey Moore of Arlington, Texas, Callie Wilson of Manhattan, Gina Penka of Eudora, Stephanie Rhoads, cousin of the bride, of Lawrence, and Kaley Peters of Manhattan. They wore sea foam matte-satin evening gowns designed in a strapless princess silhouette and featuring criss-cross satin banding at the midriff. They carried bouquets of vogue and hot pink princess roses with loped lily grass and sea foam satin-wrapped stems.

Best men were Shane Johnson of Dodge City and Eli Cook of Dodge City. Groomsmen were Colton Debes, brother of the bride, of Great Bend, Dustin Ferguson and Kyle Parker, both of Dodge City, and Damon McDonald of Garden City. Ushers were Scott Esquibel of Topeka, Ryan Kennedy and Eric Konrade, both of Garden City, Parker Rhoads, cousin of the bride, of Phoenix, Ariz., Andy Smarsh of Dodge City and Desmond Tipton of Topeka.

Candle lighters were Elizabeth and Andrew Kutina, cousins of the bride, of Great Bend. Flower girl was Payton Magouirk, niece of the groom, of Dodge City. Ring bearer was Brenden Magouirk, nephew of the groom, of Dodge City.

Vocalist was Blake Guthrie, trumpeter was J.B. Webster and organist was Connie Weiser, all of Great Bend.

The bride is a graduate of Great Bend High School and Fort Hays State University with a bachelor's degree in justice studies. She is employed by the 25th Judicial District Community Corrections as an intensive supervision officer.

The groom is a graduate of Dodge City High School, Dodge City Community College and Fort Hays State University with a bachelor's degree in justice studies. He is employed with Farm Credit of Southwest Kansas as a loan officer.

The couple reside in Garden City.

Kreutzer —

Jamie Goodno and Kevin Kreutzer were united in marriage on June 3 at St. Teresa's Catholic Church in Hutchinson. Parents of the couple are Brent and Sherre Mawhirter of Stafford and Bob and Charlene Kreutzer of Great Bend. The Rev. Smeltzer officiated the double-ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Michelle Waldman of Wichita. Bridesmaids were Alisa Fisher and Andrea Fisher, both of St. John, and Nicole Foley of the Netherlands.

Best man was Troy Kreutzer of Oskaloosa, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Troy Fisher and Chris Corby of St. John and Curt Menzer of Overland Park.

Flower girl was Aalijah Fraiser, cousin of the bride. Ring-bearer was Austin Kreutzer, nephew of the groom. Ushers were Dallas Eshleman, nephew of the bride, Justin Goodno, brother of the bride, Tom Rocky and Jeff Parchmen.

The bride is a graduate of St. John High School and Northwestern Oklahoma State. She is employed by Dr. Albright in Hutchinson.

The groom is a graduate of Otis-Bison High School and Northwest Kansas Area Technical School. He is employed as an auto tech at Laird Noller in Hutchinson.

The couple reside in Hutchinson.